Circle City Sound Chorus to Offer Free Singing Valentines

A free gift of song to honor those who serve our community

FROM: INDIANAPOLIS IN, JANUARY 18, 2019

Circle City Sound Premier Men's Chorus has transformed one of its major fundraisers into multiple free performances for individuals in the service sectors of our community.

Circle City Sound has been providing Singing Valentines to our community since 1995. Over 3,000 sweethearts have been serenaded by our quartets over the years. Our quartets provide a love song, a personalized card, a silk rose and a digital photo of the Valentine event.

In past years, this service has been sold throughout the community. This year, for the first time ever, Singing Valentines will be offered for FREE to people in the following service sectors:

Military, Firefighters, Police, Educators, Children's Services and Hospital Staff

For anyone (sender or recipient) who is in one of those groups, it is our pleasure to extend this free offer to honor and thank them for their service. Singing Valentines will not be available this year to any other individuals or groups.

Circle City Sound's chapter president Kyle Kitzmiller states, "Over the past few months, we have had the opportunity to give back to the community through various outreach performances. We have been truly humbled to see the fulfilling effect of those performances, not only for the community members we are able to engage, but just as much for our own members. While this service has indeed been a fundraiser in the past, we feel that this new investment in outreach and the people serving our community will serve an even greater purpose. We are excited to share this free opportunity with our community!"
